

When it comes to fighting hunger and illiteracy in our community...

You can make a Difference

Project Graduation™

Feed a Body. Feed a Mind.

Help community outreach agencies and literacy organizations combat continual shortages. Bring non-perishable food items and books to graduation activities or drop them off at designated locations on campus. All items collected will be donated locally. Together, we can all feed a body, and feed a mind.

For more information, visit: www.projectgraduation.org or contact:

A Community Service Initiative of Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society

Empower your community—donate today!

